On July 24, 2014, Nacogdoches County Constable, Pct 4 was dispatched with other deputies to a report of threats in the area of 21 E and CR 404. Deputies contacted the complainants who stated that they had observed the suspect riding a golf cart and that he had brought his dog to their yard and allowed the dog to use the restroom in their front yard. Complainants stated that they stepped out their front door and asked the suspect to stop allowing the dog to go to the bathroom on their yard. The complainants stated that the suspect became combative, pointed a gun at them and threatened to cause them harm, while repeatedly making racial slurs. After an investigation, deputies determined that an offense had occurred. Deputies were able to locate the suspect and observed a weapon matching the description provided, within his reach on his golf car. Deputies placed the suspect under arrest.
