On Thursday, 11/10/2011, at approximately 2230 hours, Deputy spoke to Complainant who advised she was concerned that her brother would be angry with her and might retaliate because she turned off the electricity to the family home. She explained that when their mother passed away, the property was divided seven ways, but her brother claimed the residence. She said he lived in Austin, and was never at the residence, but she paid the electricity. Because of financial limits she discontinued electrical service to the house.

Complainant just wanted to speak to Deputy in case anything happened.
