On 02/15/2012 I (Sheriff KerSS) was contacted by Mr. Dennis Glazner (Complainant) who advised that he and his ex-wife had a former tenant that had recently moved from a rent house owing them approximately $200.00. Mr. Glazner stated that his ex-wife contacted him about trying to collect the rent and he then called the individual, a Victoria Delacruz, to ask her about the rent. The Complainant advised that Ms. Delacruz became belligerent with him over the phone and instructed him to never call her again or she would contact the Sheriff's Office and file harassment charges against him. The complainant stated that he did not make a habit of contacting her but since she had moved he did not know her address and had no other way of getting in touch with her regarding the rent money she owed. He also advised that he had experienced other problems with Ms. Delacruz in the past and he wanted to avoid contact with her, if possible, but needed the money paid that she owed. The complainant wanted the incident documented in case she did attempt to call law enforcement and report the incident. At this time the matter appears to be civil in nature and no further action is required.
