On 04-27-2012 Constable W. Sowell #801 made contact with a complainant by public service. The complainant, Nancy Graves, stated that on 04-25-2012 she was on her computer at home. She further stated she was having problems getting onto Yahoo and a message popped up. The message was from someone who claimed to be "Robin" and he could help her with her problem in getting onto Yahoo. This person also told her she had unnecessary things on her computer and he could fix them for her for 170 dollars. She stated she denied this offer but notice "Robin" was controlling her computer. She stated she turned it off. The next day at work she attempted to log into her banking account and could not gain access. After contacting her bank she was told the online account had been locked because of many incorrect attempts to log in on 04-25-2012.

Ms. Graves stated no money was missing from her account. She also stated she was taking the computer to a local repair shop to have it checked out.
