On Tuesday 05-29-2012 at 1927 hrs a Deputy was dispatched to CR 222 in reference to explosions in the area disturbing a home owner. The daughter was contacted at the residence; caller was not on scene, and stated the noise and rumbling was occurring about every six minutes. This was most likely geological testing in the area. The name and office number for the company most likely responsible was given to the complainant. The complainant was also advised that if the company could not assist that she or her father could contact their County Commissioner. The responding Deputy did not hear or feel anything at the location. The Deputy patrolled the area and all County roads in a four mile radius of the possible direction of the origin of the sound and was unable to find anything. No criminal charge.
