On Monday 07-02-2012 a Deputy was dispatched to Chireno in reference to a child custody problem. There was no child custody paperwork and neither one of the children in question was harmed or in any danger. The mother of the two children lives in the Dallas area and could not be contacted. One set of grandparents had the two children in their care and custody for the month of June. I was advised the grandparents have full custody of the male and the mother has custody of the female. The complainant set of grandparents stated they had agreed to leave both children with the grandparent set in Chireno. The grandparents in Chireno said they only agreed to take the female. Harsh words were exchanged but their was never an altercation. Both parties were advised to seek legal advice and avoid contact with each other. No enforcement action taken. EOR
