Sacred Heart Catholic Church

2508 Appleby Sand Road

The first parish of Sacred Heart was established in 1847. The wooden structure stood for ninety years on North Pecan Street. On April 26, 1937, Carpenters dismantled the old Sacred Heart Church building on Pecan Street. They transported the lumber ten miles down the Old Lufkin Road to Fern Lake for the construction of St. Ann's Chapel. St. Ann's was completed on June 16, 1937. The church building was moved to Center, Texas in 1951, where it served as a chapel until 1983. The old building is now located on the grounds of Sacred Heart in Nacogdoches.

The Clardy Home

209 East Main

This downtown office and loft was bought by the Clardy's with plans of renovating the existing structure to be utilized as both a law office space and a loft apartment. The original brick structure was built sometime in the 1890s and has seen many modifications most notably following the downtown fire of 1984. The first and second floors are utilized primarily for the law practice of Clardy Davis & Knowles while the third floor is used as the living quarters of the Clardys. The third-floor balcony, affectionately dubbed "The Ledge" provides a wonderful view of Nacogdoches and a fun place to enjoy all the parades and festivities downtown Nacogdoches has to offer.

The Rust Home

303 Zeno

Built in 1937 by Leroy Kennedy this Nacogdoches treasure was at that time "way north of town." The Kennedy Home was refurbished in 2004 and 2011 but retains the original wood floors, lightening fixtures, and the character of the original home with the addition of the red front door. The rooms of the home are decorated with family antiques and the staircase the Rust's interest in aviation.
