On Tuesday 04-15-2013 a Deputy was dispatched to Garrison in reference to a welfare check. Following a disturbance at the location Deputies were asked to check on an elderly female. She was found to be in high spirits and good health. The female did not seem to be a danger to herself. She advised that she and her adult grandson got in an argument about a dog. The female advised that her grandson became very upset and she was in fear of her life due to family history so she recovered her .22 rifle and told the grandson to leave. The grandson left the residence; at the time of this report he has not contacted our Agency to file a report if he felt threatened. The complainant; daughter of the elderly female, was contacted and she stated she believes her mother is depressed and acting irrational. The complainant asked what she could do to force her mother into seeking assistance or counseling and she was advised to speak with a Justice of the Peace about mental health issues. EOR
