Synopsis:

On Wednesday, 04/30/2014, at approximately 1006 hours, a Complainant reported to the Nacogdoches County Sheriff's Office that she was a victim of a scam. Complainant received a telephone call from a woman who said she was the Complainant's grand daughter. The woman said she had been arrested in Las Vegas, NV. Complainant was then contacted by a person who advised he worked for Law Enforcement in Las Vegas and needed $5,000.00 to have the grand daughter released from jail. Complainant was told to purchase 10 "REloadit" cards from Home Depot and place $500.00 on each. Complainant was then contacted again by the person claiming to work for Law Enforcement. Complainant then gave him the number from each card releasing the money to him. Complainant then found her grand daughter was not in jail, and had not been to Las Vegas. This case is under investigation.

Report to follow.
