On Sunday 10-05-2014 a Deputy was dispatched to Sixth Street in Cushing in reference to a child custody issue. The mother of the 11 year old male child was wanting to pick him up from the father and she was afraid there may be issues. The father and child were contacted and advised the responding Deputy that the mother is verbally abusive to the child and shoved him last week. The physical altercation occurred in Lufkin and LPD was notified by the father as well as CPS. The child did not want to go with the mother at first but then decided to, to avoid possible contempt of court charges. Our Office did not influence the decision for the child to go with his mother.
