On Monday 11-24-2014 Deputies were dispatched CR 405 in reference to an animal cruelty case. A subject was concerned about three pit bull dogs that looked to be malnourished and pony that did not have shelter. The responding Deputies observed two of the dogs to be in excellent health and in good spirits, they were chained up and seemed to be well cared for. Deputies could not get close to the third dog but it seemed to be ok as well. Deputies did not observe the pony either. Deputies were contacted by a neighbor who is the mother of the property and animal owner. She advised that the animals were well fed and cared for. One of the pit bull dogs has heart worms but is being treated by a local vet. The neighbor advised the pony was living in a barn on the property and it was well cared for. Based on what Deputies observed on scene and were told by the neighbor there was no violation of Texas Penal Code or Health and Safety Code regarding the welfare of domestic animals. OR
