16:55:14 02/15/2015 - SPARKS J

On Sunday 02-15-2015 a Deputy was dispatched to speak with a subject in reference to an incident that occurred the prior Friday. The complainant's husband had attempted suicide and she was concerned that he may try to harm him self or her when he returned from the mental health facility he was taken to. The complainant was advised to seek advice from an attorney when she asked about a restraining order. She was advised that most likely a protective order could not be obtained since no family violence or assaultive offense occurred. No assault or threats were reported that occurred recently. The complainant stated her husband has threatened her in the past but it has not ever been reported to our Agency. The complainant was also advised it may be in her best interest to leave the husband at the mental health facility he was taken to but she replied that she was not satisfied with the treatment there and wanted him to be sent out of State. The complainant was very concerned that the husband would leave the facility and attempt to harm her or her family. The residence was placed on extra patrol. EOR
