On 20-19-2015 Constable W.Sowell #801 made contact with a complainant in reference to a scam. The complainant, Dana Stevens, stated she received a letter in the mail wanting her to participate in a quality control program. With the letter was a check from Walmart of nearly 2000 dollars for her work to be done in the future. Ms. Stevens didn't provide any personal information Ms. Stevens checked online and discovered the entire program was a scam. She the notified law enforcement.

This officer reviewed the letter, envelope and check. It appears due to the postage this letter was from another country.

This case is closed do to the fact the complainant did not become a victim of this scam.
