Time Completed: 12:44:31

On 5-27-15 at approximately 1245 hours, Deputy H. Wright #810 was dispatched to call in regards to a subject letting another individual borrow her mustang. There was a verbal agreement between the complainant and Chainey Sowell. The two parties got into a verbal argument and an unknown subject drove the car down a county road in Teneha, called a towing service out of Nacogdoches and stated that the vehicle overheated and could no longer be driven and needed to be towed back to Nacogdoches. The driver of the vehicle left the car and keys unoccupied. The owner of the vehicle has been billed for the towing costs and will be responsible for fixing any mechanical problems. This officer advised the owner that a follow up report would be made but that this issue is a civil matter and would need to be settled in JP court.
