Deputy spoke with complainant in regards to a child custody issue. Complainant stated that she has been caring for her nephew for several years and the child mother was recently awarded parental rights. The child's mother allowed for the complainant to continue to care for the child. The complainant is worried about the mother changing her mind and wanting the child back while she and her nephew travels to another part of the state to visit her husband. Complainant was worried about the child's mother accusing her of kidnapping. Deputy advised her that if the mother consented for to take care of the child that it would not be kidnapping. Deputy advised the complainant to seek an attorney for child custody.
