On Thursday 07-07-2016 a Deputy was working contracted off duty security at a local bar / night club. Out of the view of the Deputy two female subjects got into a physical fight. One subject sustained a laceration to the left eye from a closed fist strike. Multiple witness accounts indicated that the female with the eye injury started the physical altercation by pushing the other while they both were on a stairway landing. The injured female left by private vehicle to seek medical treatment after denying and ambulance. The other female was briefly detained and then released and advised to leave the establishment. Criminal charges could be pending following further contact with each subject. EOR
