Libraries Rock! at the Public Library

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The Friends of the Nacogdoches Public Library invite the community to Libraries Rock, a concert and silent auction, on Friday, May 11th from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Local musicians will be performing both indoors and out. There will also be a silent auction featuring a wide variety of work from area artists and artisans. Some items include sculpture from Jeff Brewer, a studio visit and piece from Wally Knight, jewelry from Anne Tindell, massage from Laura McKinney, and soaps from Longhorn Soap Company. “We are so grateful to everyone who has donated their work, and we’re receiving more amazing pieces every day,” says Crystal Hicks, assistant library director. “The outpouring of support has been lovely, and we can’t wait to celebrate with everyone.” There will be over 40 items for auction or raffle, so attendees are encouraged to arrive when the doors open to peruse all the options. Bidding for the auction will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m. and will close at 8:45 p.m., when winning bidders will be announced. There will also be a raffle opportunity for cool prizes donated by local businesses.

Shali's Indian Kitchen will be on hand serving delicious fare, and there will be complimentary beer provided by R&K Distributors. Wine and snacks will be provided by the Friends of the Library.

Kids can get in on the fun, too. The gymnastics room will be open and staffed with volunteers, so kids 7 and above can play while parents attend the concert.

Tickets are available at the library, and in advance, adult tickets are $5 and child tickets are $1. At the door adult tickets will be $10 and child tickets will be $5.
