Book to Action Book Club at the Nacogdoches Public Library

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The Nacogdoches Public Library offers two nontraditional book clubs. Club Read: Lunch Hour Book Club occurs every other Wednesday at noon. This book club is for readers who want the option of reading books of their choosing, but still want to be able to discuss what they've read with other people. The next meeting for Club Read is August 15th.

The second book club the library offers is Book to Action. Everyone reads the same book and the group discusses ways to make positive changes in the community. This month's selection is $2.00 a Day: Living on Almost Nothing in America by Kathryn Edin and Luke Shaefer. The group will meet Saturday, August 4th at 2:30pm. Copies of the book are available at the library and online through the library's Overdrive collection. Registration may be done in person, by calling 559-2970, or from the library's website at www.ci.nacogdoches.tx.us/library.
