Google Docs Computer Class at the Public Library

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The Nacogdoches Public Library will offer an introduction to the popular project management website, Airtable. This free site allows users to create calendars, make notes on projects, add contacts, and more. Projects can be as small as planning for a vacation to more complex series of events or tasks. It can be shared with friends or coworkers. Airtable 101 will be offered Wednesday, September 26th at 5:45 pm. The class is free and registration may be done in person, by calling (936) 559-2970, or via the library's online registration form located at www.ci.nacogdoches.tx.us/library. Basic familiarity with Microsoft Word is required. For questions or registration information, please call library staff at 559-2970.
