NEA Big Read Nacogdoches: Hunger Games

(Nacogdoches, TX) – NEA Big Read Nacogdoches has offered programs for adults and now it's the teens turn have a program. Library After Hours: Hunger Games Edition will be offered on Friday, October 19th at 5:30 pm for kids ages 10-19 years.

Continuing the month-long celebration and examination of dystopian literature, teens will face off against each other in a friendlier takeoff of the modern classic dystopia, Hunger Games book series. Like Station Eleven, the Hunger Games books take place in a post-apocalyptic setting and characters must make critical choices to survive! May the odds be ever in your favor!

The program is free, but registration is required. Registration may be done in person, by calling (936) 559-2970, or online at www.ci.nacogdoches.tx.us/library.

NEA Big Read Nacogdoches is the month-long community reading program funded through the NEA Big Read grant from the National Endowment for the Arts in conjunction with Arts Midwest and Nacogdoches Friends of the Library.
