A.A.R.P. Offers Free Tax Preparation at the Public Library

(Nacogdoches, TX) – AARP Tax-Aide volunteers have been preparing area residents' tax returns for the past few weeks at the Nacogdoches Public Library. However, there will be no tax preparation service on Monday, March 18th.

The service will resume March 25th and will continue through April 8th. Tax help sessions are on Mondays from 9am to 12pm and are on a first-come, first-serve basis.

AARP can help individuals and families file most tax returns; some restrictions apply.

There are no age or income restrictions to receive this service. Participants should come prepared with photo I.D., social security card for everyone on the tax return, all W-2s, 1099s, other tax receipts, voided check or deposit slip and last year's tax return.

Customers may also use the library's public computers to prepare their own tax returns.

Please call 559-2970 for more information.
