NEA Big Read: Magic Story Time

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The weekly Nacogdoches Public Library story time has returned, albeit in a slightly different form. Story time now takes place outdoors under the library’s portico. The October 28th story time will take place at 10 am and will feature a magic-themed story time in a nod to the grown-up NEA Big Read selection, Circe by Madeline Miller.

Due to COVID-19 precautions, all persons 10+ years of age must wear a mask. Participants will be socially distanced from one another. Registration for this and other library programs can be found at www.nactx.us/library.

The NEA Big Read celebrations continue through the rest of October. For a full schedule, please visit www.nactx.us/library or call the library staff at (936) 559-2970.
