

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release:
October 20, 2020

Contact information: Mercedes Franks
(936) 559-2970

NEA Big Read: Circe as a Feminist Character

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The NEA Big Read celebration of the book, Circe by Madeline Miller, continues with a book discussion by Crystal Hicks, assistant library manager.

Hicks' book discussion, Circe as a Feminist Character, takes place on Thursday, October 22nd at 6:00 pm online. The program link can be found by registering at www.nactx.us/library.

Circe is a lesser known Greek goddess, daughter of Helios, who has been banished to an isolated island. Although more well-known gods and goddesses make appearances in the novel, the story is of Circe and her development.

Everyone is welcome to attend. Free copies of the book are available at the public library or may be accessed online through the Overdrive collection. NEA Big Read is a program of the National Endowment for the Arts in partnership with Arts Midwest.

For more information about library programs, please visit www.nactx.us/library.

