Zoom for the Holidays- Nacogdoches Public Library

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The Nacogdoches Public Library will once-again host Zoom for the Holidays to help family members and friends connect to one another virtually.

“Even under normal circumstances, the holidays can be a difficult time for many people and now that many of us are not traveling or are limiting get-togethers to keep safe because of the pandemic, people might feel isolated. To help alleviate holiday loneliness, the library staff will facilitate video chats between friends and family. This is not a class. We will actually have laptops and iPads available so that anyone who does not have a device or might not know how to use video chat can get connected,” said Mercedes Franks, library manager.

Zoom for the Holidays will take place December 8, 9, and 23. Because of the need to coordinate the video chats with the friends and family who live elsewhere, reservations are required. Spanish-speaking library staff are available to assist with the program. Please call (936) 559-2970 to register.

For those who cannot attend the sessions, but still wish to learn about video chat, please contact the library staff to schedule a one-on-one tutorial.
