Groups for New English Speakers & People Seeking Citizenship

(Nacogdoches, TX) – The Nacogdoches Public Library offers two groups for people learning to speak English or seeking their U.S. citizenship, as well as books, DVDs and databases.

The English as a Second Language Conversation Group meets Thursdays at 5:30 pm. Participants work on their English conversation skills and build their vocabulary through guided reading exercises. All levels of English proficiency are welcome.

The Citizenship Study Group meets every Tuesday at 5:30 pm. The group reviews questions from the civics portion of the exam, practices for the citizenship interview, and works on vocabulary and pronunciation.

Both groups resume the week of January 10th and meet year-round. Participants may join anytime. To maintain a safe environment for customers and library staff, attendance will be limited and masks are required. Please register by calling (936) 559-2970.

For individuals who may not be able to attend, the public library also offers online resources, such as the Learning Library Database that has resources for people learning English and the Brainfuse HelpNow database that offers an online writing lab and resources for people seeking their U.S. citizenship.
