Deputies were dispatched to a criminal mischief call which was taken by public service. The CP stated that on Sunday she heard a 4 wheeler around her property and knows it to be a neighbor who typically does this. She said on Monday she was advised by her farm foreman that some pipes which run water to her chicken farm had been loosened and water was leaking out. CP did not report seeing any tool marks or anything that would show where someone tampered with the pipes other than they were loose. She said they could not have loosened by themselves as these pipes are "commercial grade" and required a large wrench. CP said there was no actual damages, but wanted to make this issue known as she has recently had issues with her neighbor coming onto her property without permission. At this time no charges will be filed, and CP said she is getting security cameras and will call again if this issue persists.
