On Tuesday, July 15, 2025, deputies spoke with a complainant who stated that he wanted to report his Yamaha R-6 motorcycle as stolen. A preliminary investigation revealed that the R-6 motorcycle had not been stolen but had been traded to another individual in exchange for a different motorcycle. Further inquiry determined that this incident had already been reported the previous week. At that time, the complainant was advised that the matter was civil in nature and that he should seek legal counsel. Deputies also informed the complainant that if any criminal charges were to be pursued, they would need to be filed in Shelby County, where the transaction reportedly took place. No further action was taken, and deputies returned to service.
