A25-00388 LOOSE LIVESTOCK

Deputies were dispatched to the 400 block of Hidden Valley Drive in reference to a welfare check. Upon arrival, deputies made contact with both the homeowners and a home health representative from Affinity Hospice Care. Deputies confirmed that the homeowners were safe and that the home health employee was verified through their employer and had permission to be on the property. The caller had expressed concern due to a lack of recent communication with their daughter. During the investigation, deputies determined that the homeowners were of advanced age and suffering from late-stage dementia. It was also discovered that they were upset with their daughter due to ongoing family issues. No further action was taken. Deputies cleared the scene and returned to service.
