Deputies were dispatched to the 2000 block of FM 3228 in reference to a trespassing complaint. Dispatch advised that the caller reported two unknown male subjects were on her property. Upon arrival, deputies made contact with both the caller and the male subjects. A preliminary investigation revealed that the property is currently involved in a legal dispute in the courts. The caller is the granddaughter and is contesting ownership of the property, which previously belonged to her late grandparents. Deputies further learned that a local realtor has listed the property for sale online, resulting in individuals arriving to view the property. The two male subjects left the premises voluntarily. All parties were advised that the matter is civil in nature and were instructed to contact their respective attorneys for further guidance. No further action was taken, and deputies returned to service.
