Deputies were dispatched to the intersection of FM 2863 and CR 521 in reference to a welfare check. Dispatch advised that a Hispanic male was lying in a ditch. Upon arrival, deputies made contact with the subject, who appeared to have been assaulted at some point during the previous night. The subject refused all medical treatment and declined to file a report with law enforcement. At the subject's request, deputies provided a courtesy ride to a store in Alto. The call was cleared due to non-cooperation by the victim. No further action was taken, and deputies returned to service.

On 12/21/2025, NCSO Deputies were dispatched to the 100 block of Gilbreath Street in reference to a reported disorderly conduct call. Upon arrival, deputies discovered that both involved parties had successfully completed a tactical retreat and were no longer on scene. Moments later, frequent flyer Jennifer Jolly made contact with deputies and requested transportation to the local emergency room. No active disturbance was observed at that time, other than the disturbance having already disturbed itself and left. Deputies, demonstrating outstanding customer service and patience exceeding department-issued limits, provided Jolly with a courtesy ride to the local ER. No further incidents occurred during transport, and deputies were able to clear the call without additional drama, paperwork, or return trips, an unexpected but welcomed outcome.
