Deputies were patrolling the area of US 59 North and FM 2435 when they observed what can only be described as nature winning an argument with road equipment. A tree had fallen directly on top of a motor grader that was attempting to clear snow and ice from the roadway. While deputies were assisting the operator of the motor grader-who appeared just as surprised as the deputies-several tractor-trailers attempted to climb the nearby hill. These attempts were unsuccessful, as the icy roadway proved to be undefeated. After advising one driver, who appeared to have obtained their CDL from the local TA/Denny's combo during a coffee break, deputies were ultimately able to clear the roadway. Once the hill stopped collecting trucks and the tree stopped attacking equipment, deputies returned to service.

The cows were observed actively enjoying a buffet of hay bales stored near the road and appeared in no hurry to leave. Deputies made multiple attempts to encourage the cows to return to the pasture; however, the cows clearly preferred free food and warmth over cooperation. The mamma cows made their opinions known and were less than impressed with law enforcement's negotiation efforts. After realizing there was no room for argument-and that the cows had clearly won-deputies allowed the mamma cows to continue eating off the roadway. Deputies did not receive any further complaints regarding these cows for the remainder of the day.
