Deputies spoke with the caller, who stated he entered into an agreement with a subject in which he sold a vehicle to the subject. The caller advised the subject was later arrested on unrelated charges, and he now wanted to report the vehicle as stolen in an attempt to recover the vehicle. Deputies explained to the caller that, due to the agreement between the two parties, the matter appeared to be civil in nature. The caller then advised he never changed the vehicle registration into the subject's name and the vehicle was currently located in Houston, accumulating toll charges. Deputies explained to the caller that he would need to contact the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV) or the appropriate agency to cancel the license plates and address the registration issue. Deputies had no further action to take and returned to service.

Deputies were contacted by the complainant, who stated she recently purchased property that is located within both the city and county limits. The complainant advised she wanted to place goats on her property but was concerned the neighbor's dogs may harm or kill the goats. The complainant further advised that while walking her small dog on her property, the neighbor's dogs run toward her property line and bark at her and her dog. The complainant wanted to know what actions she could take to protect herself and her property. Deputies provided the complainant with information regarding available options and advised her of the appropriate steps to address the concerns. Deputies had no further action to take and returned to service.
