Deputies were dispatched to the 300 block of Harley Lane in reference to a possible mental health concern. Upon arrival, deputies made contact with an elderly female who was residing at the location. The residence had no electricity or running water, and the subject did not have adequate food or water available.

Due to the extreme triple-digit temperatures and the unsafe living conditions, deputies advised the subject that remaining at the residence under those conditions was unsafe. The subject agreed to leave the residence and returned with family members to Milam County, Texas.

Deputies contacted the Milam County Sheriff's Office and provided information regarding the subject and the circumstances. Milam County advised they were familiar with the subject and would address the situation. Deputies cleared the scene and returned to service.
