Deputies spoke with the caller, who stated he entered into an agreement with a subject in which he sold a vehicle to the subject. The caller advised the subject was later arrested on unrelated charges, and he now wanted to report the vehicle as stolen in an attempt to recover the vehicle. Deputies explained to the caller that, due to the agreement between the two parties, the matter appeared to be civil in nature. The caller then advised he never changed the vehicle registration into the subject's name and the vehicle was currently located in Houston, accumulating toll charges. Deputies explained to the caller that he would need to contact the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (TxDMV) or the appropriate agency to cancel the license plates and address the registration issue. Deputies had no further action to take and returned to service.

Deputies were contacted by the complainant, who stated she recently purchased property that is located within both the city and county limits. The complainant advised she wanted to place goats on her property but was concerned the neighbor's dogs may harm or kill the goats. The complainant further advised that while walking her small dog on her property, the neighbor's dogs run toward her property line and bark at her and her dog. The complainant wanted to know what actions she could take to protect herself and her property. Deputies provided the complainant with information regarding available options and advised her of the appropriate steps to address the concerns. Deputies had no further action to take and returned to service.

Deputies were contacted in reference to a possible scam. The complainant stated he was attempting to unlock his T-Mobile phone so it could be used on the AT&T network. The complainant advised that individuals claiming to be Apple Support attempted to obtain his banking information during the process. The complainant stated he did not provide the requested information and had not lost any money. He further advised that he had already contacted his bank and requested they monitor his account for any suspicious activity. Deputies advised the complainant that notifying his bank was the appropriate course of action and instructed him to contact the Sheriff's Office if any unauthorized transactions occurred or if additional information became available. Deputies then returned to service.
