On November 11, 2026, at approximately 1523hrs, I, Deputy C. Fyffe #528, along with my Field Training Officer (FTO), Deputy D. Phelps #529, were dispatched to a reckless driver in the area of State Highway 21 E and FM 226.

Dispatch advised that the caller reported a silver Kia Soul bearing Texas registration XDM5108 traveling eastbound on State Highway 21 E at varying speeds between 40 and 60 MPH. The caller further reported that the vehicle had left the roadway several times.

Due to our distance from the vehicle's last reported location, we responded to its registered address, 488 CR 4191, to conduct a welfare check on the registered owner, Doris Samford (W/F, 08/29/29), who was listed as 97 years of age.

Upon making contact with Doris, I observed that she resided alone in what appeared to be unsafe living conditions. Doris also displayed several signs of disorientation during our contact. Doris was safely assisted back inside her residence.

Due to the conditions observed, Doris's apparent disorientation, and the lack of capable family members available to assist her, Adult Family Services (AFS) was contacted. A report was subsequently filed with AFS for further investigation.

AFS Contact: Kelli #403
AFS Case #: 81944183

All events occurred in Nacogdoches County, Tx.
